STEVEN C. MILLWEE, CPP, is the President and Chief Executive Officer of SecurTest, Inc., founded in 1978. He is also the President and Chief Executive Officer of iReviewNow, LLC. In 2002, he served as President of ASIS International (formerly American Society for Industrial Security), the premier professional and certification association for security and law enforcement professionals with over 40,000 global members. SecurTest has been named one of the top background screening providers, primarily due to Mr. Millwee's patented iReviewNow.

WHAT LEGAL EXPERTS ARE SAYING

"I have tried hundreds of cases the last three decades all over the country on all types of legal matters. Having a great expert on the key issues in dispute is critical. Steve Millwee is as good as it gets for a workplace violence case. He has incredible credentials, is very thorough, and presents very well to a lay jury. His testimony in my case resulted in a good verdict for our client on a matter that may very well have been lost without his involvement, particularly when we were dealing with a very conservative court in a very conservative jurisdiction".

Brent W. Coon, Esquire - Board Certified-Civil Trial Law (NBTA) - Board Certified-Personal Injury Trial Law (TBLS) - Jury awards war hero over 1 million dollars: verdict returned on employee murder lawsuit <https://securtest.com/2012/newsroom/warhero.pdf>

"It was a pleasure working with you and thank you for educating me on so many levels. I hope we have an opportunity to work together again in the future. Please also feel free to use our firm as a reference although with your credentials I doubt you ever need one." Clayton J. Fitzsimmons, Esq. - FITZSIMMONS LAW FIRM PLLC – 2013 Road Rage Kills 3 Leaving Rehab <https://www.post-gazette.com/breaking/2010/02/01/Road-rage-blamed-for-I-70-crash-that-killed-2/stories/201002010166>

"There is no shortage of experts. But the best have the ability to comprehend the entire case, to analyze the testimony of every witness and to articulate opinions in a strong, yet clear manner that juries are able to believe. This best defines Steve Millwee. His dynamic presentation skills are unparalleled. In one instance, Steve's questions forced the opposing expert's testimony to differ from his report, and he came to agree with Steve, which proved pivotal in resolving the case in my client's favor." James Globber, a Board-Certified Civil Trial Attorney - Maintenance Man Kills Elderly Tennant <https://www.news4jax.com/news/2007/08/20/maintenance-man-charged-in-womans-death/>

"I have been an attorney for over 17 years and worked with many expert witnesses. The key in a premises liability case is having the best expert that can explain foreseeability and negligent security. Steve Millwee is the best expert in this field, bar none. His incredible credentials, background in security management, law enforcement experience, and thorough collection and analysis of the facts was detailed in a comprehensive 40-page report. The opposing expert didn't hold a candle to Millwee. Millwee uncovered facts that we didn't know, including how the Defendants had failed to disclose the poor lighting on the night the victims were attacked in the mall parking lot. Mr. Millwee provided detailed opinions about foreseeability, including the proximity of prior crimes, recency of prior crimes, similarity of prior crimes, frequency of prior crimes, and publicity of prior crimes. This case may have never been resolved, if not lost without Steve Millwee's premises liability acumen".

Special Recognitions

The University of South Florida Criminology Department inducted Mr. Millwee in the Wall of Fame in 2013. As the founder and CEO of SecurTest, Inc., it has been named one of the University of South Florida's "FAST 56". The Fast 56 identifies, recognizes the fastest-growing USF Bull-owned or Bull-led businesses. The Fast 56 not only celebrates their success, but it also provides a forum to pass lessons to the next generation of Bull entrepreneurs. Mr. Millwee was named the 1977 Police Officer of the Year in Tampa for his work solving the most difficult homicides in the newly formed unsolved murder unit. His ability to identify suspects and obtain admissible confessions was key to the recognition, according to Major Walter Heinrich. Mr. Millwee was elected the 2002 president of ASIS International, which is the premier professional society for security executives, akin to the American Medical Association for physicians. Mr. Millwee recently appeared on the American Hero Channel's "American Lawmen" series about his mentor Delf "Jelly" Bryce. He has appeared on other news broadcasts and "Unsolved Mysteries", among news outlets.

- Management and legal counsel consultation for corporations and professional associations for HR, business, security, and leadership solutions.
- Help for employers with negotiating difficult terminations into voluntary separations to mitigate liability and security risks.
- His years of experience in business management help employers find alternatives that are often unavailable from internal resources.
- He has testified as an expert in police procedures, interview and interrogation, and polygraph, crimes of violence involving disgruntled employees, stranger, domestic and other forms of familiar violence.
- He has testified in DRAM Act cases involving the serving of alcohol to patrons.

Mr. Millwee is Board Certified in Security Management as a Certified Protection Professional (CPP) through ASIS International. The ASIS certification program is the first and only program of its kind to be awarded a coveted Designation by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) under the Support Anti-Terrorism by Fostering Effective Technology (SAFETY) Act of 2002. The SAFETY Act Designation gives ASIS board-certified professionals, their employers, and their customers immediate protection from lawsuits involving ASIS certification that arise out of an act of terrorism. Not only does it limit the types of liability claims that can be brought against a certificant, but it also entitles the certificant to immediate dismissal of those specific types of claims. Employers of ASIS-certified practitioners also gain protection against terror-related liability claims, which includes a presumption of dismissal from these lawsuits.

Experience

Mr. Millwee is the inventor of iReviewNow (copyright protected and U.S. Patents 7,979,908, 8,646,101 and 9,183,363, the only background screening solution which allows consumers to verify their own consumer reports in real-time, effectively mitigating all FCRA and EEOC-related claims. He is also the inventor of TerrorAlert (copyright protected and U.S. Patent Pending), which instantly identifies terrorist, violent, and other high-risk candidates, invitees, or others entering secure government and critical infrastructure facilities. He is also the author of The SecurTest System, comprised of 320 applicant and employment questionnaires. Mr. Millwee specializes in workplace violence prevention and intervention, crisis management, employee misconduct, such as theft or sexual harassment, and management and employee training to defuse the potential for workplace violence or employment liability.

Mr. Millwee has testified as an expert witness in the fields of workplace violence, negligent hiring, retention, screening, security, polygraph, premises liability, police procedures, and other forensic fields. He is a crisis management consultant to many American corporations, conducting violence and threat assessments. He is the author of SecurViolence and SecurThreat, custom threat assessment questionnaires. He is also the author of, SecurHarass, questionnaires for helping employers conduct investigations of sexual harassment complaints.

The CPP (Board Certified in Security Management) distinction demonstrates a significant level of competency in the security profession verified through arduous testing, background qualifications, and the highest standards of professional conduct. He has been re-certified by the Professional Certification Board of ASIS in 1998 and 2001 by meeting its continuing education and ethical requirements. In 1998, he served on the ASIS CPP Role Delineation Committee which updated questions for their certification tests. His committee developed information for the investigation, negligent hiring and retention, negligent security, premises liability, and workplace violence disciplines. Mr. Millwee performs site inspections for clients to mitigate the risk of crime and claims of negligent security and premises liability.

Mr. Millwee lectures nationally on human resource and security issues. He lectures with the Department of Homeland Security, Council on Education in Management, ASIS International, National Safety Council, Society for Human Resource Management, Institute of Business Law (California State University, Los Angeles), Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA), National Food Service Security Council, among others. His highly rated lectures include topics on screening of applicants and employees, workplace violence, defusing disgruntled and violent workers, domestic violence, negligent security, employee theft, fraud prevention, IT security, employee investigations, hostage survival, robbery survival, negligent hiring and retention, interview and interrogation, leadership development, and written testing.

Mr. Millwee's expertise and techniques are listed in the first edition (1997) second edition (1998), and fifth edition (2002) of Security Business Practices Reference, published by ASIS International. He was a founding member of the editorial board of Loss Prevention Professional from 2001 to 2003. A well-published author, his most recent articles appear below.

Mr. Millwee has performed comprehensive investigations for companies, employers, and their legal counsel, including, but not limited to:

- Homicide
- Workplace violence, assault, battery, sexual battery, threats of violence, and other crimes of violence.
- Healthcare abuse, such as sexual assaults by employees against patients, including hospitals, nursing homes, extended care facilities, and other healthcare facilities.
- Harassment and sexual harassment.
- Theft
- Robbery

Previously, Mr. Millwee was the lead detective in the Unsolved Murder Unit of the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office in Tampa, Florida. He was responsible for all murder investigations that remained unsolved for over six months. Mr. Millwee formerly was with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington D.C. He served in law enforcement seven years.

In over 41 years of helping corporations, employers, and government agencies defuse hostile or threatening employees, no incidents of retaliatory violence have occurred when using the methods and counsel offered by Mr. Millwee. Moreover, The SecurTest System has never been successfully challenged in court as it complies with all federal and state laws.

Mr. Millwee is also a management consultant to many corporations and professional associations, helping them develop HR, business, security, and leadership solutions to meet their diverse needs. He is often called on to negotiate difficult terminations into voluntary separations to help mitigate liability and security risks. His experience in business management helps employers find alternatives that are often unavailable from internal resources.

Mr. Millwee was a founding member of the Board of Directors for the Joint Council on Information Age Crime, whose primary mission was to help establish relationships between public and private sectors to secure critical infrastructures. He has consulted with the Department of Homeland Security, helping forge communication pathways to the nation's directors of corporate security.

Mr. Millwee has investigated numerous incidents of patient abuse in long-term care and healthcare facilities, including sexual assault, rape, acts of violence, and other crimes. Moreover, he has testified as an expert witness in the rape and impregnation of disabled and incapacitated long-term patients in extended healthcare facilities.

Mr. Millwee served on the 2020-2021 Editorial Team for the Protection of Assets Manual for ASIS International's chapter on Investigations. Protection of Assets (POA) is intended for a security professional to find current, accurate, and practical treatment of the broad range of asset protection subjects, strategies, and solutions in a single source. The need for such a comprehensive resource is quite widespread according to the editors, writers, and many professional colleagues whose advice has been sought in compiling this text. The growing size and frequency of all forms of asset losses, coupled with the related increasing cost and complexity of countermeasures selection, demand a systematic and unified presentation of protection doctrine in all relevant areas, as well as standards and specifications as they are issued. Of course, it would be presumptuous to assume that any small group of authors could present such material unaided. It is, therefore, a fundamental objective of Protection of Assets to draw upon as large a qualified source base as can be developed. The writers, peer reviewers, and editors attempt to distill from the available data, common or recurrent characteristics, trends, and other factors, which identify or signal valid protection strategies. The objective is to provide a source document where information on any protection problem can be obtained.

Exemplar of Mr. Millwee's testimony and opinions

Mr. Millwee has been an expert witness for over forty-one (41) years. His professional vitae speaks to his expert witness testimony. He has provided expert witness testimony regarding premises liability and negligent security cases in Texas, Florida, Arizona, Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Virginia, Nebraska, New York, California, Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia. The following is a sample of testimony and opinions relied on by courts and legal counsel over his 41-year career as an expert for both plaintiffs and defendants.

Mr. Millwee was the expert witness for the Plaintiffs concerning claims involving premises liability and negligent security. The case involved the attack by unknown third-parties in the parking lot of the Defendants shopping center in Boca Raton, Florida. The Plaintiffs' "Witness, Expert Witness, and Exhibit List" read, "Steven C. Millwee, CPP (Forensic Security Expert – Mr. Millwee is an expert in the field of Forensic Security who testify as to the foreseeability and the breach of the standard of care owed by the Defendant." Mr. Millwee provided detailed opinions about foreseeability, including the proximity of prior crime, recency of prior crime, the similarity of prior crimes, frequency of prior crime, and publicity of prior crime. The opinions and analysis mirrored a Timberwalk type analysis. (Cause No. 50-2018-CA-007955; Melonie Whitted and River Swaynham vs. Southeast Centers; In The Circuit Court Of The Fifteenth Judicial Circuit of The State Of Florida, In And For Palm Beach County, Civil Division.)

Mr. Millwee is the expert witness for the Plaintiff in Harris County, Texas, concerning a premises liability and negligent security case. The "Plaintiff's Amended Designation of Experts and Supplemental Response to Request For Disclosure", reads: "Mr. Millwee is expected to testify about the risk and foreseeability of the robbery/shooting made the basis of this lawsuit, the likelihood of injury resulting from such a robbery/shooting, the social utility (or lack thereof) of the defendants' sexually oriented business, the magnitude of the burden of adequately guarding against such a robbery/shooting, and the consequences of placing this burden on the defendants." (Cause No. 2017-85189; Paxton Webb, Individually, and as Next Friend of Hunter Webb, A Minor Child vs. Katz Boutique 6, Inc., et al, in the District Court of Harris County, Texas, 189th Judicial Circuit.)

Mr. Millwee was the security expert in the high profile case of the incapacitated patient who was raped and later gave birth at a Phoenix long-term care facility. Police arrested Nathan Sutherland, a nurse at Hacienda Healthcare, for sexually assaulting the 29-year-old woman, who had been in long-term care since age three after suffering a near-drowning. Sutherland's arrest was the result of a DNA match, among other evidence. The family had given orders to the facility years earlier that only female staff was allowed in the room after learning their daughter was the victim of sexual abuse. The investigation revealed that Sutherland had been alone with the patient on hundreds of occasions. Treating physicians and nurses were unaware of her pregnancy until she was in labor. (Wendee Thompson, an incapacitated adult, by and through Mildred Salter, her mother and legal guardian and Joseph Thompson, her father; Mildred Salter, individually and on behalf of Wendee Thompson; and Joseph Thompson, individually and on behalf of Wendee Thompson vs. STATE OF ARIZONA; PHILLIP GEAR, JR., M.D. and JANE DOE GEAR, husband and wife; JUST FOR KIDS, P.L.C. d/b/a JUST 4 KIDS PEDIATRICS; THANH DIEP NGUYEN, M.D. and JANE DOE NGUYEN, husband and wife; INTERNAL MEDICINE CONSULTANTS, LLC. In the Superior Court of the State of Arizona in and for the County of Maricopa, Case # CV2019-057584.)

Mr. Millwee is the expert witness for the Plaintiff in Clearwater, Florida, concerning a premises liability and negligent security case. The deceased was the victim of a sexual battery while an invitee of the Defendant's resort.
